

H.E. BUTT FOUNDATION

PERRI ROSHEGER (LEAD SPOKESPERSON)

Vice President of Community Engagement and Communications

830-315-9204 | prosheger@hebfdn.org

Perri Rosheger joined the Foundation in 2004. In her current role, she is our lead spokesperson and oversees the Foundation's fundraising, program evaluation, CRM platforms, and Guest Care Services. She also guides a capacity-building program for vital nonprofits in San Antonio. Throughout her tenure with the Foundation, she and her team have helped secure more than $23 million in outside support.

Perri received a Bachelor's of Science in Human Development & Family Studies from Texas Tech University in 1989 with additional graduate and executive education work in religion and nonprofit professional development.

Currently, Perri serves as a member of the Sustainability Committee for Excel Beyond the Bell San Antonio, a collective impact effort to ensure San Antonio is a top city for youth to learn, grow, and thrive.

PATTON DODD

Executive Director of Storytelling and Communications

830-315-9241 | pdodd@hebfdn.org

Patton Dodd joined the Foundation in 2015 and oversees internal and external communications. He also guides our public storytelling efforts designed to illuminate challenges and opportunities for vulnerable families and children in the region.

Previously, Patton served as editor in chief for OnFaith and executive editor for Patheos. His reporting and commentary have appeared in a range of publications including the Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, CNN.com, TheAtlantic.com, Christianity Today, and Slate.

Patton also taught English, writing and film studies at the United States Air Force Academy. He holds a doctorate in religion and literature from Boston University and a bachelor's degree in English from Colorado State University.

Patton serves on the Journalism Advisory Board of the Religion News Association.